

Candidate Testimonials

At Higher Talent we pride ourselves on the excellent level of candidate care we are continually able to provide, from search through to offer stage.

We are always pleased to receive any feedback as this informs us of the true candidate experience offered by Higher Talent together with how we compare in the world of recruitment.

We hope to assist in finding your next role and adding your name to our list of successful candidates.

Please see below feedback from just a few of our most recent placements.

Senior Reward Analyst, FTSE-100 company

"Higher Talent was recommended to me by two previous colleagues as a firm who places genuine importance on listening to what each candidate is looking for - seeking to find a good role fit for the mutual benefit of employer & employee. I found them to be very personable, knowledgeable and responsive and will definitely recommend them to others."

July 2009

International Assignments, Goldman Sachs

"Having registered with numerous recruitment agents, I can confirm that the quality of service that I received from Higher Talent was superior to that of any other agent. From my initial consultation through to finally accepting an offer, Higher Talent ensured that I was fully updated at all stages of my application - the service was always supportive, efficient and professional. What sets Higher Talent apart from other agencies is their unique approach to finding the right job for you - with strong relationships in the market Higher Talent actively seek opportunities on your behalf. It is no surprise that it is through Higher Talent that I found the perfect job for me."

July 2009

Matthew Line, Pensions & Benefits Manager

"Alison Hughes and the team at Higher Talent managed the search, selection, and recruitment process in a timely and professional manner. Alison has a good understanding of her industry specialisation and is a trusted business partner."

July 2009